- The Yugostav Government has reportedly become more severe in its treatment of Rumanian refugeos crossing its frontiers. Tagostav authorities are said to separate Rumanian refugees into anti-Commform Communist and non-Communists. Those in the non-Communist category are reportedly sent back across the Aumanian Provider, where he is said, they are usually show in sight by the Rumanian Provider quards.
- 2. Ruranise man-Communists who have managed to avoid being returned to Rumania and these Rumanians who entered Yugoslavia before this change in policy are now used for forced labor. Several cases of shooting of sizeable numbers of Rumanian refugees mean the Italian frontier have recurred in recent months.
